

Woe to WOW—Solutions for Resilience

helping your audience thrive and succeed at work and home

Introduction

Presenting to thousands of people each year, Patricia Morgan is an international speaker with a Masters degree in Psychology. She helps individuals and organizations lighten their load and strengthen their resilience to improve vitality, productivity and work satisfaction. Patricia was honored by Global TV and the YWCA as a Woman of Vision.

Patricia has authored several publications. They are here for sale and she will gladly sign them.

Patricia says of herself, ‘I am a certified counselor, mother to three, grandmother to three and happily married most days.’

Please help me welcome Patricia Morgan.”
